Dear Wallace

Thanks awfully for your "Long Labrador Trail. It is a capital. I saw the first copy in the operators little room at Red Bay. It is a capital book, and as old Moore sententiously remarked in his cautious way "it be true, isn't um?"

It was good of you to send it along, & you can always be sure of a welcome "on the coast"- as you know. I'm sorry you gave up on the little schooner trip. She was all ready for you at the Mill, & I have a letter from George Ford in which he says he would far preferred the trip with you, to going back into the H.B.C. service.

Would you also give my love to Edgar Briggs & thank him very much for the cruise of the shining light. My secretary is "adrift" and I am overwhelmed with work. My assistant has also not joined me yet.

My love to the friends everywhere, and to your noble self—

Faithfully yours

Wilfred Grenfell
